

Creative Portion:

1. User are allowed to search the movie by year. They can both use the title and year to search for the movies. And the return result will based on the title and the year.
2. A watch button is provided in the movie detail view. When it is clicked, the app will jump to a page which can provide some movie resource for the users to choose to watch.
3. The poster, detailed information and the watch button in the detail view have some animations.